LINES IN A SON'S BIBLE.

Remember, love, who gave thee this,
When other days shall come—
When she who had thy earliest kiss
Sleeps in her narrow home:
Remember 'twas a mother gave
The gift to one she'd die to save.

That mother sought a pledge of love
The holiest for her son;
And from the gift of God above,
She chose for her beloved boy
The source of life and light and joy.

And bade him keep the gift—that when
The parting hour should come,
They might have hope to meet again,
In her eternal home;
She said his faith in that would be
Sweet incense to her memory.

And should the scoffer, in his pride,
Laugh that fond gift to scorn,
And bid him cast that pledge aside,
That he from youth had borne!
She bade him pause, and ask his breast
If he, or she, had loved him best?

A parent's blessing on her son
Goes with this holy thing;
The love that would retain the one
Must to the other cling;
Remember, 'tis no idle toy,
A mother's gift—remember, boy.

A ODE TO A MUSKETER.

You wicket bluid sucker, why doant
You urn yure livin sam wa beside
Litin down on people and insurten yure
Long bill to get blud, litin on Foakses noses, and when tha git mad an
Begin to slap, leave? Haint yu got feelinks?
Grate scezer! how yude git knocked if you was
As large as sum two legged blud suckers as is Round here, wot wares klose. Whi doant yu

Tha no it, without hollerin all the whyle?
Yur a kanabile you do a big biznis on a
Smawl skail, you suck more blud owt of a
Feller than an elefant can, an yure smeller
Aint half as long. You walk up foaks
When tha are sleepin, and that swair
Vengeus. How du yu work it to keep
Your bil so sharp without grindin? Whi
Doant you pek wurms owt ov trees,
& ete insex. you long legged feach?
What tewn is it in yu syng so much,
Going round with your fethirs shott oph,
Seaking whoom yu ma devower? Yu
Scam to be a kou ten tid burd from yur
Singin, and syng loudest when yure
Hungryist. I shud thynck yud want on Boots or panty letts to keep yure long
Legs from bein koaled thys wether,

HOLD HER DOWN.

Spotless gentiles! when you find
Woman fallen—never mind!—
Hold her down!
Push her, frown her out of the way,
(Pure as you even yesterday!)
She's no right among the gay—
Hold her down!

What if 'twas but one misdeed,
One step will to another lead—
Hold her down!
"Pass by on the other side,"
Stone her with reproach and pride;
Is she slipping? let her slide—
Hold her down!

(You have sinned like her I wot—
She was caught and you were not;)
Hold her down!
She (like you) to sin was prone,
Stone her, gentiles, she's alone,
(Let the pure one cast the stone,)
Hold her down!

MOSES THE SASSY; Or, the Disguised Duke.

A TALE OF BLOOD AND THINGS.

BY ARTEMUS WARD.

CHAPTER I.

MOSES.

My Story opens in the classic freeslinks of Bosting. In the parlor of aristocratic manshun on Bacon strect sits a lovely young lady whose hair is covered ore with the frosts of 17 summers. She has just sot down at the Piany & is singin the poplar peace called Smells of the Notion, in which she tells how with Pensiv Thawt she wondered by a C beet shore. The Son is settin in its horrizon and its glorius lite pores in a golden meller flud through the winders and makes her twicet as bootiful as bed, which is onnessary. She is magnifisuntly dressed up in Berage basque with Poplin trimmins, More Antique edges and 3 ply carpeting. Her dress contains 12 flounders, brilliantly ornamented with horn buttons and her shoes are red morocker with gold spangles onto them.—Presently she presses her hands to her buzzom and starts up in an excited manner. "Methinks," she whispers in clarion tones, "I see a voice!" A noble youth of 27 summers scrapes the mud from his butes in the hall and enters. He is attired in a red shirt and black trowsis' which last air turned up over his butes, and his hat is bewitchingly cocked on one side of his classioul hed. In sooth he was a noble child. Grease, in its parmiest days near projuced a more gallenter herow than Moses. The young lady gazes upon him for a few periods, clasps her hands together, strikes her position, and rollin her I's wildly like a expirin infantile cow, cries:

"Ha! do my I's deceive my earsight? That frame! them store clothes! those voice! it is—it is me own, me own Moses!" and he folded her to his hart. "Methinks I shall swoon," she sed, and pretty soon she swownddid.

CHAPTER II.

WAS MOSES OF NOBLE BIRTH?

Moses was foreman of Ingine Kumpany No. 40. The 40's had jest ben havin a pleasant fite with the 50's on the day I introjuce Moses to my readers. He had his arms full of troffees, to wit: 4 scalps, 5 I's, 3 fingers, 7 ears, which he had chawed off, &c., &c. When Elizy (for that was the lovely young lady's name) rekivered from her swoon she asked?

"How hast the battle gone? Tell me!"

"Elizy," said the brave young man, drawing hisself up to his full hite, "ve chawed 'em up and smashed their old mersheen all to pieces!"

"I thank the gods," she cried. "Thou didst full well, and hence4th I ware thee in me hart of harts! And Moses," she continnered, loyin her hed confidintly agin his weskit "dost know I sometimes think that thou wastest of noble birth?"

"No," sez he, wildly ketching hold of hisself, "you don't say so?"

"Indeed do I," she sed. Your dead grandfather's spirit camest to me the other nite, and ses he, "Moses is a Disguised Juke!"

"You mean Duke," ses Moses.

"Dost not all the actors call it Juke?" she sed sternly.

That settled the matter.

"I hav thought of this thing afore," sed Moses abstractly, "If it is so, thus it must be! 2B or not 2B—that airs the question! But no more of this now.—Dry up. O life—life, you're too many for me. He tore out some of his pretty yeller hair, stamped on the floor wildly, and was gone.

CHAPTER III.

THE PIRUT FOILED.

Sixteen long and weary years had elapst since the sceens narrowated in the larst chapter took place. A noble ship, the Sary Jane is sailin from France to Ameriky through the Wabash Canawl.—A pirut ship is in hot pursoot of the Sary Jane. The capting of the S. J. looks fateceged & as though he had lost all his paruints. The Pirut is close on to him & he is about given in, when a fine looking feller in russit butes and a buffaler overcut rushes forred and sez to the capting, sez he,

"Old man! go down stares. Retire to the starberd bulkhead. He take charge of this Bote!"

"Owdashus cuss?" sed the Capting, away with thee or I shall do mur-rer-der-r-r!"

"Scarcely," sez the noble feller, and he drew a diamond hilted sword and cut the captings head off.

"O that I should liv to become a ded boddy," sed the capting, as he fell to the deck. He expired shortly afterwards, being fatally killed.

"People!" sed the noble feller, "Ime the Juke de Moses!"

"Old hoss, methinks thow art blowin!" sed a youth of 49 summers, and the Juke cut off his head likewise. "Don't print any verses on my deth in the noospapers," screamed the unfortnit young man as he fel ded on the deck, "fur if yer do He haunt yur!"

"People continnered the Juke, "I alone kin save you from von bluddy and unprincipled piruts! What hoc there! A peck of oats!" The oats was immejitly brawt. The Juke took them and bravely mounting the jibpoop he threw them onto the towpath. In a minit the leading hoss hitch to the Pirut Bote cum along, stopt, and commenced fur to devour the oats!—The driver swore and hollered at him terrible but he wouldn't budge an inch.—Meanwhile the Sary Jane, her hosses on the clean jump, was fast leavin the Pirut ship!

"Onct agin do I escape deth!" sed the Juke between his clenchtteeth, still on the jibpoop.

CHAPTER IV

THE WANDERER'S RETURN.

The Juke was Moses the Sassy. He had bin in France about sixteen years and now he was at home agin in Bosting. He had sum truble in gitting hisself acknowleged Juke of France, as the Orleans Dinasty and Borebones were fernest him, but he finally conkered, and now he had crossed the deep blue C to get his own Elizy. She new him at onct, as one of his ears and a portion of his nose had bin chawed off in his fights with opposition fireman durin boyhood's sunny hours.—They were marrydid and went to France, to reside in their ducal Palis which was got up regardlis of expense. They had several children and lived to a green old age, beluved "by all both grate and small," as the Poick sez.

The Pirut Captin was captured, tride, convicted, and sentenced to read all the letters that Messrs. Giddings and Wise shall write for the ensooin 4 years. His fiends are endeverin to get his centence commuted to imprisonment for life, 1 hour in each day to be devoted to readin the Canada papers. He sez this sentence was worser than tother one was. Still he don't keer much as long as he gets his meals regular.

This is my 1st attempt at writin a Tail & it is far from bein perfeck, but if I hav indoosed folks to see that in 9 cases out of 10 they can either make Life as barren as the Desert of Sarah, or as joyyus as a flower garding my object will have bin accomplised. Adoo.

"How Tecumseh was Killed.

The Western Christian Advocate of this week contains an obituary notice, by Rev. A. Wright, of the Indiana M. E. Church, of Isaac Hamblin, Sr., who died at his residence near Bloomfield, Indiana, a few months since, aged about 86 years. Mr. Hamblin was a man of deep piety and unquestionable veracity. He was in the battle of the Thames, and the writer gives the following as his statement in regard to the manner in which Tecumsch was killed:

He says he was standing but a few feet from Col. Johnson when he fell, and in full view, and saw the whole of that part of the battle. He was well acquainted with Tecumseh, having seen him before the war, and having been a prisoner seventeen days, and received many a cursing from him. He thinks that Tecumseh thought Johnson was Harrison, as he often heard the chief swear that he would have Harrison's scalp, and seemed to have a special hatred toward him. Johnson's horse fell under him, he himself being also deeply wounded; in the fall he lost his sword, his large pistols were empty, and he was entangled with his horse on the ground. Tecumseh had fired his rifle at him, and when he saw him fall, he threw down his gun and bounded forward like a tiger sure of his prey. Johnson had only a side pistol ready for use. He aimed at the chief over the head of his horse, and shot near the center of his forehead. When the ball struck, it seemed to him that the Indian jumped with his head full fifteen feet into the air; as soon as he struck the ground, a little Frenchman ran his bayonet into him, and pinned him fast to the ground."

The Value of a Lottery Prize.

A New Orleans letter in the Charleston (S. C.) Courier, relates an incident which illustrates in a striking manner the evil that may be produced by one lottery ticket. A young man of good family in New Orleans, who is passionately fond of gambling, was playing cards with considerable ill-luck, and as a last throw, having lost all his money, staked a lottery ticket. He lost. After the game was over, the winner having no faith in lotteries, proposed to throw dice for it, at twenty-five cents a chance. A bystander, "a poor fellow who never owned a hundred dollars in his life," accepted the offer, and won the ticket.—A few days afterwards the Havana steamer arrived, and lo! the ticket had drawn $25,000. The original owner, who had thus thrown away a fortune, on hearing the news, was taken with an attack of brain fever, and is even now in a sad condition; it is feared he will remain an idiot. The lucky drawer of the prize immediately invested a round sum in an assortment of the most flashy jewelry and garments and has been leading ever since a life of continued revelry; he has become a fast man, and is following fast the road to ruin. The disbeliever in lotteries cannot forgive himself, and whenever he meets a friend stops him and tells him the story. It has become such a mania with him that his friends avoid him, and turn the corner as soon as they see him coming. He has had several quarrels at the gaming table, where the sight of the cards inevitably brings the oft-told table to his lips. Thus one prize in a lottery has made one man an idiot, started another on the road to ruin, and crazed a third. A terrible price for one prize, certainly.

A GOLDEN RULE.—Industry will make a man a purse, and frugality will find him strings for it. Neither the purse or the strings will cost him anything. He who has it should only draw the strings as frugality directs, and he will be sure always to find a useful penny at the bottom of it. The servants of industry are known by their livery; it is always whole and wholesome. Idleness travels very leisurely, and poverty soon overtakes him. Look at the ragged slaves of Idleness, and judge which is the best master to serve—Industry or Idleness.

☞ A New London (Conn.) girl, at San Antonia, keeps a bowling saloon, and offers herself to roll with any amateur in the country. She finds plenty who are willing to try their hand with her, and she pockets the change, never as yet having been beaten. She states that in six months she cleared $2,000, which, considering the times, isn't bad.

Sorrow Shall Come Again No More.

What to me are earth's pleasures, and what its flowing tears,—
What are all the sorrows I deplore?
There's a song ever swelling—still lingers on my ears,—
Oh! sorrow shall come again no more.
'Tis a song from the home of the weary—
Sorrow—sorrow is forever o'er;
Happy now—ever happy on Canaan's peaceful shore—
Oh! sorrow shall come again no more.

I seek not earthly glory, nor mingle with the gay,
I covet not this world's gilded store;
They are voices now calling, from the bright realms of day—
Oh! sorrow shall come again no more.
'Tis a song, &c.

Though here I'm sad and drooping, and weep my life away—
With a lone heart still clinging to the shore;
Yet I hear happy voices, which ever seem to say,
Oh! sorrow shall come again no more.
'Tis a song &c.

'Tis a note that is wafted across the troubled wave—
'Tis a song that I've heard upon the shore;
'Tis a sweet thrilling murmur around the christian's grave—
Oh! sorrow shall come again no more.
'Tis a song, &c.

Homeward Bound.

Out on an ocean all boundless we ride.
We're homeward bound, homeward bound,
Tossed on the waves of a rough, restless tide,
We're homeward bound, homeward bound,
Far from the safe, quiet harbor we rode,
Seeking our Farther's celestial abode,
Promise of which on us each he bestowed,
We're homeward bound, homeward bound.

Wildly the storm sweeps us on as it roars,
We're homeward bound, homeward bound,
Look yonder lie the bright heavenly shores,
We're homeward bound, homeward bound,
Steady, O pilot, stand firm at the wheel,
Steady, we soon shall outweather the gale,
Oh! how we fly 'neath the loud cracking sail,
We're homeward bound, homeward bound.

Into the harbor of heaven now we glide,
We're home at last, home at last,
Softly we drift on its soft, silver tide,
We're home at last, home at last,
Glory to God, all our dangers are o'er,
We stand secure on the glorified shore,
Glory to God, we will shout evermore,
We're home at last, home at last.

How One Becomes a "Sonny."

"Jeems" was recently initiated into the Order of the Sons of Malta, and graphically describes his introduction into the "vale of mystery," as follows: "You are first grabbed and thrown into a tub of cold water, and forthwith several large men begin to stick pins into you. Hauling you out of the tub of water, they rush you into another department, and now new men make a lunge after you, dressed in disguise, and immediately commence pouring hot molasses into your hair and boots. Meanwhile, a stream of cold water is flooded on to you, and a man dressed in black thrusts a snuff-box in front of your nose, and all at once you begin to sneeze vociferously, and the eager crowd begins to laugh and hurrah. Shoving you further along, the chief men and bottle-washers grab you by the nose, hair, and coat tail, and in this way rip every bit of dry goods loose from your person, and again the crowd roars with tumultuous laughter at your nude state, with five or six men holding on to your hair and togs, forcing you up a soaped pole with pins and sharp sticks. You now begin to think you are forsaken by all of God's people, and that the devil has certainly got possession of you, knocking you on the head so that you see stars as numerous as they are in the milky way. You are handled in this kind of tantalizing way for two hours, when the officer give you a large dose of liverwort and tar, and then let you go."

A Good Thing in the Story Line.

Some years ago, a Cincinnati paper received and printed the first chapter of what appeared to be a most thrilling romance, in the expectation of being provided with the concluding portions as they might be needed. The chapter was very ingeniously written, and concluded by leaving the principal character suspended by the pantaloons from the limb of a tree over a perpendicular precipice. It attracted the attention of the press, and inquiries began to be made concerning the continuation and the fate of its hero.—Day after day the victimized publishers looked for the remaining chapters but in vain. They never came to hand. Finding that they had been sold, and wishing to put a stop to the jokes their cotemporaries were cracking at their expense, they briefly concluded the story thus:

"Chapter II—Conclusion.—After hanging to the treacherous tree for four weeks, his pantaloons gave way, and Charles Melville rolled headlong over the yawning precipice. He fell a distance of five miles, and came down with the small of his back across a stake and rider fence, which so jarred him that he was compelled to travel in Italy for his health, where he is at present residing. He is engaged in the butchering business, and is the father of a large family of children."

The Election.

At the time we go to press (Thursday evening) sufficient returns have been received to decide that Col. L. W. Hall, the People's candidate for Senator in this district, is elected by a majority of about 450. Blair county gives him a majority of 1496—the largest majority we believe ever given to any candidate—Cambria gives Durbin between 600 and 700 and Clearfield gives him only some 300 or 400. Mr. Hall is the youngest man ever elected to the Senate in Pennsylvania.—His election by such a handsome majority, in a district undoubtedly largely Democratic, must certainly establish the truth of our assertions, made previous to his nomination, that he was the best and strongest man named in connection with the office.

Jacob Burley has been re-elected to the House of Representatives by an increased majority. The entire Opposition county ticket is elected, by what majorities is not yet known.

In Huntingdon county, the Opposition ticket, with the exception of Representative and Sheriff, is elected.

In Mifflin county, the entire Democratic ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 50 to 200.

In Perry county, the entire Opposition ticket is elected, with the exception of Sheriff; B. F. Miller, the Democratic candidate, is elected.

In the Cumberland Senatorial District it is announced that Irwin, Oppositoin, is elected.

A. K. McClure, Opposition, has been elected to the Senate from the Franklin District by a handsome majority.

In Philadelphia, the Opposition elect both the Senators, and 12 out of 17 Representatives.

Enough returns have been received in Philadelphia to indicate that the Opposition have elected Senators in eleven districts. If so, the next Senate will stand 22 Opposition to 11 Democrats. It is supposed the House will stand 65 Opposition to 35 Democrats.

The Opposition State ticket is undoubtedly elected by a large majority.

La Mountain Safe.

It is probable that few if any persons in this part of the country are acquainted with John La Mountain and his aerial travelling companion John R. Haddock, yet every newspaper reader rejoices to hear that they are safe. The tidings came by telegraph from himself. It appears that the balloon carried them four hundred miles north of Watertown, their point of departure, into the Canadian wilderness. There they lost everything, and after being four or five days without food, were taken in charge by Indians, who conveyed them in their canoes to a region of civilation. They arrived on last Tuesday evening in Ottawa, the future seat of government of Canada. If the statement of the distance they were carried is correct, they must have been about latitude 50° near the Rupera River country of the Hudson's Bay Territory, and within a couple of hundred miles of the Hudson's Bay itself. Truly that was a pleasant region to be dropped into from the skies. That the men escaped with their lives is providential indeed. The narrative of their journeyings and adventures, aerial and terrestial, will be eagerly looked for. We hope it will have the effect to check the balloon mania that is prevailing now. One thing has been demonstrated by this unfortunate flight, and that is that the theory of a steady current of winds to the Eastward, which is to be depended on for a voyage to Europe, is a total fallacy. If La Mountain had kept on in the course he was he would have reached the North Pole sooner than Europe.

Senator Broderick Killed in a Duel.

The latest arrival California brings the intelligence that a fatal duel was fought on the 13th ult., near San Francisco, between Hon. David C. Broderick, U. S. Senator, and Hon. David G. Terry, Judge of the Supreme Court. Broderick fell on the first fire, pierced through the lungs. He lingered till half past nine o'clock in the morning, when he died.—The community was profoundly agitated at the melancholy event. Judge Terry was unhurt. Some of the San Francisco papers, it is telegraphed, evince a disposition to make it appear that Broderick was the victim of a conspiracy, but the most prominent ones assert that the duel was conducted in strict accordance with the code duello. Broderick's pistol went off before he raised it on a line with his antagonist. Terry's shot took effect two inches from the right nipple, carrying away part of the breast bone. Broderick suffered intense agony from the time he was shot until he died. When the mail left, two hours after his death was announced the flags of the city were at half mast, and emblems of mourning were beginning to appear in all parts of the city.

The following, which is the supposed cause of the bloody duel, we clip from the Pittsburgh Evening Chronicle:

For an explanation of the rancorous and vindictive feelings existing among the prominent California politicians, we will have to refer back to the late campaign, which has stirred up so much excitement and bad blood among all classes of the community in that State. Between the 1st of July and the 7th of September, the political canvass was accompanied by the bitterest personalities. Senators Broderick and Gwinn both took the stump, and indulged in such disgraceful abuse and vulgar vituperation of each other as has never been paralleled in the annals of political wrangling, prolific as they are known to be in every variety of scandal, dirtiness and malignity. Broderick, as is well known, was a prominent anti-Lecomptonite, and in his speeches was very severe on Terry, ex-Chief Justice of California, and a warm Administration man, but ultra-Southern in politics as well as in morals. They had for a long time been the bitterest political enemies.

Judge Terry is a Texan lawyer, about forty years of age. The only public position he ever held in California was Chief Justice for the Supreme Court, a position for which he was not considered fit in either learning, talent, or moral character. He was on the bench during the Vigilance Committee time, and he was for a long time held a prisoner by that body for having stabbed a member of the committee. He is very brave, but coarse, and his general reputation is that of an honest man, who, while on the bench, could not be approached by offers of bribery. So long ago as last June, Broderick, while at the table of the International Hotel, said that Terry was a corrupt Judge. A friend of the latter, a Mr. Perley, requested Broderick not to speak in that style at a public table; Broderick repeated the language. For this, Perley challenged him; but Broderick refused to fight, first, because Mr. Perley was a British subject, not an American; secondly, because Mr. Perley was not his equal in political position; and, thirdly, because the interest of his party demanded that he should not fight until after the election; but intimating that, after the election, he would accept a challenge from Terry himself.

But the Judge would accept no terms of settlement other than an unconditional withdrawal of the offensive remarks made by Mr. Broderick, and an apology therefor. It is well known that the Judge some time since determined to pursue this matter to the bitter end, soon as the time arrived to which Mr. Broderick had postponed the adjustment of these matters; when, therefore, the result of the election was ascertained, Terry, who is known as a man of great nerve and coolness, sent a polite note to Broderick through C. Benham, his second, inviting him to a hostile meeting. Broderick has the reputation of being a man of physical courage; and his defeat in the campaign just closed, had converted his general condition of misanthropy to that of desperation and recklessness of life.—He, therefore, through the Hon. Jos. McKibbin, formerly of this city, promptly responded. All efforts made by the seconds and friends of both parties proved vain, and the fatal result of this political fracas we now know. One party has been cruelly murdered, and the survivor, if he have any heart, or sensibility at all, will pass the remaining portion of his life an unhappy man—tortured by self-reproach and the memory of the ruin his blind rage and rashness have accomplished.

Important Railroad Intelligence.

We find the following in the Pittsburgh Chronicle of the 7th inst. How near it may be correct we cannot say; we give it as we find it.

At a recent meeting of Railroad Officers, represent the Pennsylvania Central, Reading, East Pennsylvania, Lehigh Valley, and New Jersey Central Railroads, an arrangement was definately made for the running of through passenger and freight trains, over the new route which is formed by these connecting roads between New York and the West. We understand that this arrangement contemplates the running of two daily express passenger trains each way, without change of cars, from Jersey City to Pittsburgh. One will be a night line, leaving New York at 8 P. M., and provided with the improved sleeping cars now use in on the Pennsylvania Railroad. The trains will commence running as soon as the Fall time-tables of the various Western Railroads that make connection with the Pennsylvania Central, are fixed. As this route is much nearer, from New York, to Cincinnati, St. Louis, Cleveland, Chicago, and indeed all points West and South-West, than by either the New York Central or Erie roads, and has an unbroken guage, avoiding all ferriages or transhipments, it will doubtless command the great bulk of the passenger travel and freight transportion between New York and the West.

Mississippi Election.—The returns from the Mississippi election show Democratic gains, John P. Pettus, Dem., is elected Governor by a large majority.—The following Congressmen are probably elected:—1st district, L. Q. C. Lamar, Dem.; 2d district, Reuben Davis, Dem.; 3d district, Wm. Barksdall, Dem.; 4th district, O. R. Singleton, Dem. No change, politically, from last year.

The Great Oyster Discovery.—The Norwalk Gazette, of October 4th, says, that up to Saturday night, inclusive, upwards of two hundred and fifty thousand bushels of oysters had been taken off in smacks, schooners and other craft. All through the week from two to three hundred sail of vessels were engaged in dredging; and again on Sunday over a hundred sail could be counted on the spot from the Connecticut highlands. A gentleman competent to judge, who has been upon the ground, gives it as his opinion that the entire bed cannot be exhausted in five years.

The average earnings of every man who has worked upon the spot is stated, in the Norwalk paper, to be at the lowest figure admissible, twenty dollars a day. The discovery is more remunerative and valuable than any gold mine ever discovered in California. The excitement all along the Sound continues.

Practical Machinist.—This is the title of a new mechanical paper just started in New York, by T. H. Leavitt & Co., for the encouragement of inventive genius and mechanical skill. It is a very neatly printed eight page paper, published at the rate of $1.00 per annum. From the hasty examination we have given it, we believe it well worth the price.

☞ A telegram from Leavanworth, dated October 7th states that the adoption of the Wyandotte Constitution is rendered certain, by the reception of returns from most of the important counties. The majority will probably reach four thousand.

A Cold Winter Predicted.—About ten days ago a tremendous drove of gray squirrels, numbering hundreds of thousands, suddenly made their appearance on the Merimac, covering the trees and waters like a pall. Thousands of them were afterwards found dead in the river and on the ground. They crossed the Mississippi at that point, and worked their way down the river, until on Wednesday they reached Cape Girardeau, crossing the river at that point in countless myriads. The citizens turned out en masse and killed them by hundreds. Every tree and bush in that vicinity swarmed with them until night, when they all disappeared, and have not been heard of since. Their route was marked as by a devastating storm. Trees were girdled and fields destroyed. Old French settlers predict a very severe winter, as it was noticed in 1834 and 1852 that immense droves of squiraels suddenly made their appearance, followed by intensely severe weather.—St. Louis Express.

A Curious Speculation.—What a noisy creature would a man be were his voice, in proportion to his weight, as loud as that of a locust! A locust can be heard at the distance of one sixteenth of a mile. The golden wren is said to weigth but half an ounce, so that a middling seized man would weigh down not short of four thousand of them, and it must be strange if a golden wren would not outweigh four locusts. Supposing, therefore that a common man weighs as much as sixteen thousand locusts, and the note of a locust can be heard one-sixteenth of a mile, a man of common dimensions, pretty sound in wind and limb, ought to be of sixteen thousand locust power, and able to make himself distinctly heard at the distance of sixteen hundred miles, and when he sneezed "his house ought to fall about his ears."

Heenan and Morrissey.—Heenan, the Benicia Boy, publishes the following card:—New York, Oct. 10, 1859:—I have been informed through the medium of the public press, and from those who were present and heard him, that Mr Morrissey stated, a few days since, that he would fight any man in the world, and me, in particular, for $10,000. If this be indeed Mr. Morrissey's wish, I shall be most happy to accommodate him, either before or after my contest with Sayers for the championship of England. I will put up a forfeit to fight him for $10,000 at the time and place mutually agreed upon, according to the rules of the prize ring.

(Signed) JOHN C. HEENAN,

Spurgeonism.—The following is said to be among the beauties of thought and expression for which the Rev. Mr. Spurgeon, of London, has become famous:

"The very beasts are better than man, for man has all the worse attribute of the beasts, and none of their best. He has the fierceness of the lion, without its nobility; he has the stubbornness of the ass, without its patience; he has all the devouring gluttony of the wolf, without the wisdom which bids it avoid the trap. He is a carrion vulture, but he is never satisfied; he is a very serpent, with the poison of asps beneath his tongue, but he spits his venom afar off as well as nigh."

☞ It is stated that Col. Fremont has written a letter declaring that he is not, and will not be a Presidential candidate in 1860. He is represented as closing his letter in the following language: "I consented to hold that relation in 1856, against my better judgment and will, but I was assured that those who would rally around me possessed the power essential to my election; and I confess that the "bauble," as it might have been called by Oliver Cromwell, possessed attractions which I could not well resist. But I would not again encounter all the vexation, mortification and annoyance I then encountered, if the reward were to be ten thousand presidencies."

☞ A correspondent, who has heretofore proved himself reliable, informs the Natchez Courier of the existence of two negro children, brothers, in Newtown, Md., whose heads are covered with wool as white as that on a sheep's back. It is further said that their eyes are colorless, and that taken altogether, such curious beings have never before been heard of. Cases of albino have been noted, but these creatures have black skins, and hence are not of that genus.

☞ Somebody, speaking of the hurrying properties of the Yankees says: "If a big mortar could be constructed, which would throw an immense bomb-shell, containing fifteen passengers, from St. Louis to Boston, in five minutes, with an absolute certainty that fourteen would be killed by the explosion, tickets for seats by the "Express Bomb Shell Line" would at once be at a premium, each passenger being anxious for the chance to prove himself "the lucky fifteenth."

☞ The Great Eastern is earning $3,000 per day at her dock, in England, this being the amount of admittance fees. She had better stay there awhile.

☞ A man who had brutally assaulted his wife was brought before Justice Kavanaugh, lately, had a great deal to say about "getting justice." "Justice," replied Kavanaugh, "you can't get it here. This court has no power to hang you."

☞ Mr. Ten Broeck writes from England to a friend in Memphis that his winnings in England this year have topped $450,000, to which he riskid but $20,000.

☞ Somebody advertises for agents to sell a work entitled "Hymeneal Instructor." A cotemporary adds, "the best hymeneal instructor we know of is a young widow. What she don't know, there is no use learning."

☞ It is strange that among all the monuments and statues which have been reared in this country, not one exists to the memory of John Hancock. His remains sleeps unnoticed, beneath the soil which he, with others, freed from a tyrant's grasp.

☞ La Mountain and Haddock, the balloonists, landed in the Canada woods, three hundred miles from Watertown. They were four days without food, and lost the balloon. They were brought down the Ottawa by the Indians, in their canoes.

☞ Long Sermons.—Rev. William Taylor, in his late work, "The Model Preacher," says: "Often when a preacher has driven a nail in a sure place, instead of clinching it, and secureing well the advantage, he hammers away till he breaks the head off, or splits the board."

☞ Fastest Time Yet.—At Cincinnati, on Friday last, Flora Temple and Ike Cook were matched for $1,000 a side. The race was won by the former in three straights, viz:—2.26½, 2.27, 2.21½. The last heat was the fastest on record, and the first half mile of it was made in 1.09½.

☞ An ingenious Scotchman, it is said, has trained a couple of mice to turn a reel for twisting twine. The laborers run about ten miles a day and reel from 100 to 120 threads. A half penny's worth of oatmeal lasts a mouse six weeks; and the clear annual profit on each animal per year is computed at six shillings.

☞ Wages in California.—A San Francisco writer, of late date, says the following are about the rates of wages now paid: Carpenters from $4 to $7 per day; bricklayers and masons from $4 to $6; blacksmiths, wheel-wrights, machinists, painters, tinsmiths from $3 to $4.50; common laborers $3; farm hands from $30 to $40 per month and found; cooks from $30 to $60.

☞ The town elections in Connecticut, on Monday, resulted more favorably for the Republicans than ever before. Out of 105 towns heard from, the Republicans were successful in 63, the Administration in 35, and in the balance the result was either divided or did not depend upon politics. The Republicans made net gain of seven towns.

☞ Well Paid for his Signature.—The Baton Rouge (La.) Gazette, speaking of the office of superintendent of public education in that State, says: "This is a very onerous office, requiring the occupant to sign his name as many as four times during the year. Now, the salary is $3,000, so that the lucky incumbent gets $750 every time he signs his name."

☞ Steam Carringes for Common Roads.—The Newark (N. J.) Mercury says that Mr. Fisher, of Patterson, has constructed a steam carriage, which was tried on the common road to Acquackanock, a few days ago, when it went on the level fifteen miles an hour, with twelve passengers. One mile was run in three minutes.

☞ A Clergyman, in England, was thrice married. His first wife he married for her money, the second for her beauty, and the third to take care of him when he was old. His last partner proving a shrew, he was accustomed to remark that, during his life he had three wives—the world, the flesh, and the devil.

☞ The National Infidel Convention, which has been in session in Philadelphia during the present week, closed its sessions on Tuesday evening. Horace Seaver, of the Boston Investigator, officiated as President. From the minutes of the society, it appears that fourteen new societies have been added to the parent society during the year.

☞ A Trial of strength and speed occurred in Chili a few weeks since, between two British and two American locomotives, constructed for the Great Southern (Chilean) Railway.—After several attempts the English concern performed in eighty minutes the work which the Yankee performed in less than half that time.

☞ A Minister, noted for combining the somewhat incongruous professions of preacher and money lender, was offering a prayer, in which was the following petition: "Grant that we may have more interest in heaven!" "Don't do it!" exclaimed one of the congregation, "don't do it! the old sinner gets five per cent. a month now, and that's enough, the Lord knows!"

☞ The love of ornament creeps slowly but surely into the female heart. A girl who twines the lily in her tresses, and looks at herself in the clear stream, will soon wish that the lily was fadeless, and the stream a mirror. We say, let the young girl seek to adorn her beauty, if she be taught also to adorn her mind and heart, that she may have wisdom to direct her love of ornament in due moderation.

☞ Horace Greely is emphatically a punctual man. He was announced to deliver the address before the Wyoming County Agricultural Society on Wednesday last, arrived in New York on Tuesday evening from California, and only calling at the Tribune office a few moments, left to fulfill his appointment without even seeing his family from whom he had been absent four months and a half. Such punctuality is unusual.

Sir John Franklin.

It is a satisfaction to be, at last, informed definitely of the fate of Sir John Franklin and the men composing his crews. The steamer Fox, Capt. McClintock, sent out by Lady Franklin, has got back to England with the full particulars, and many memorials of the ill-starred expedition. These were found on the northwest coast of King William's Island. A full record of the events that occurred in the expedition, dated April 25th, 1849, was found, and this shows that Sir John Franklin died June 11th, 1847, up to which time nine officers and fifteen men had died. The survivors, 105 in number, were proceeding South to the Great Fish River. The discovery confirms the previous reports that have been received. Dr. Rae ascertained from the Esquimaux, in 1854, that a party of about forty white men were on King William's Island in 1850, and a few months later they found their bodies not far from the Great Fish River. These were doubtless the last remnant of Franklin's party, who, after the close of the record lately discovered, started southward and gradually wasted away and perished.

The story of Franklin's Expedition can now be told, from beginning to end, somewhat as follows:

May 26th, 1845—The Erebus and Terror sailed from Sheerness, officers and men numbering 138 persons.

July 26th, 1845—The expedition was seen in Baffin's Bay.

June 11th, 1847—Sir John Franklin died.

April 22d, 1848—The Erebus and Terror were abandoned in the ice in Victoria Strait. Up to this time 33 of the officers and men had perished.

Spring of 1850—About forty of the expedition were seen by Esquimaux on King William's Island.

Summer of 1850—The bodies of the remnant of the crews were found near Great Fish River.

There is nothing more to be told, that is essential to ascertain the fates of the Erebus and Terror expedition. In five years from the time of their sailing all had perished. But the narrative of the expedition and its calamities will be looked for with eager interest by the whole world. For all civilized nations have had their sympathies excited in behalf of Franklin and his lost navigators, and there will be a sad satisfaction in knowing what they suffered and how they perished.

Sir John Franklin, whose name will forever be remembered by reason of his unhappy fate, was born at Spilsby, Lincolnshire, April 16th, 1786, being the youngest son of a respectable yeoman. He was put to school at St. Ives, and afterwards at Louth. He had an early longing for the sea, and entered as a midshipman on the Polyphemus in 1800, being at the battle of Copenhagen, April 2d, 1801. He saw much and varied service, and was signal midshipman on board the Bellerophon at Trafalgar. He commanded the boats of the Bedford in the fight with American gun boats at New Orleans, capturing one of the boats, and receiving a wound in the action. In 1818 he was appointed to the command of the Trent, in the expedition ordered to attempt the passage to India by the polar sea, North of Spitzbergen. The expedition turned out unfortunately, but Franklin gained much reputation. In 1819, he was sent in command of an expedition to explore the coast of America, east of the Coppermine River. The result of this was a great addition to our knowledge of Arctic geography. Franklin returned to England in 1822. In 1825 he was ordered on another overland expedition to the Arctic sea, and he had to leave the sick bed of his young wife, who died the day after he went to sea. He returned by way of New York, and landed in Liverpool, September 24th, 1827.—On the 8th of March, 1827, he was married to Jane Griffin, the present respected Lady Franklin. In the following year he was knighted.—In 1830, he was sent to the Mediterranean, rendering good service to the Greek cause. In 1836, he was made Governor of Tasmania, or Van Dieman's Land, which office he administered ably till 1843, when he returned to England. In 1845, he was appointed to command a new expedition to search for the Northwest Passage, and he sailed with the Erebus and Terror on the 26th of May, 1845. The record ends with his death on the 11th of June, 1847, at the age of sixty-one years and nearly three months.

Of the two wives of Franklin, the first Eleanor Ann Porden, was a lady of unusual accomplishments and scholarship, who taught herself Greek and Latin when eleven or twelve years old, and became a proficient in other languages, besides studying various branches of natural science. She wrote and published several poems, one of which "The Arctic Expedition," which appeared in 1818, led Franklin to seek her acquaintance, and they were married in 1832. She died within less than two years, of consumption. His second wife, who survives him, was a daughter of John Griffin, and was born about 1800. Her devotion to him is well-known to the whole world, and it is to her persistent efforts that the final discovery of his fate is due.—Bulletin.

British Punishment for Desertion.—The London Times gives the following report of a case of flogging in the British army for desertion:—"The first man, named Green, bore his punishment, as stated by an eye witness, "like a true soldier," but the second, named Davis, a young recruit, protested his innocence of the crime of desertion, bellowed and screamed for mercy, and supplicated Col. Talbot and the medical officers and others who were present to have compassion on him, or he should die. His back was covered with a mass of large red, inflated boils, which bled profusely at every stroke, and reddened the ground under his feet, upon which the cat was ordered to be withheld for a few moments, when, finding that his punishment was not at an end, he gave vent to exclamations for mercy, and partly succeeded in delivering himself by force from the straps which bound him to the halyards. The punishment was again ordered to be continued, when at every succeeding stroke his cries and exclamations were most lamentable, that officers and men swooned away at the sickening spectacle, and had to be carried into the open air. One officer and upwards of twenty non-commissioned officers and men long in the service fainted, and others stopped their ears and closed their eyes, lest they, too, should become unnerved, and be subject to the reproach and ridicule of their comrades.

☞ A New History of the United States, by an Englishman, is said to contain the following: "Before I went to America, I had heard much of American natural scenery; but I confess I was sadly disappointed when I came to see it myself. I have traversed the country from the colonial dependence of Her Most Gracious Majesty, in Canada, to the Rocky Mountains, and I saw nothing that could be called worthy of the artist's or poet's observation. It is true that Canada has some charming scenery, which has been much improved by British taste and art—the natural consequences of the refinement and cultivation of the inhabitants; but whenever one crosses into the States, the country exhibits either wild forests or naked prairies, both of which are dangerous to travel through, in consequence of the quantities of voracious animals they contain. A distinguished member of the United States Parliament informed me that a railroad train last year, was attacked by a drove of racoons, while crossing a prairie, and every passenger destroyed. These racoons are the terror of this wild country, and have depopulated thousands of miles of its surface."

What the War Cost.—The two months campaign in Italy can scarcely be said to have been a cheap amusement for any of the parties concerned. The Allgemeine Zeitung figures up the cost to the immediate parties to the war, and also to the neutral Powers who were required to make preparations for contingencies, in the following tables:—

Austria	£20,000,000
France	20,000,000
Piedmont	4,000,000
Other Italian States	800,000
Russia	1,200,000
England	880,000
Germany	5,120,000
Total	£52,000,000

This makes the snug little aggregate of $260,000,000—or nearly one-third of the whole national debt of England.

LOOK OUT FOR YOUR HEAD

A poet gives the following advice to young men on going to parties:

In going to parties, just mind what your at;
Beware of your head and take care of your HAT;
Least you find that a favorite son of your mother,
Has an ache in the one and a brick in the other.

Speaking about hats and heads—the subscriber would respectfully announce that he has just returned from the city with a large and well selected stock of Men and Boys'

HATS AND CAPS, OF ALL STYLES,

FOR FALL AND WINTER,

of every color and shape. Also, a good assortment of

LADIES AND MISSES FURS,

of different varieties, all of which will be sold

CHEAP FOR CASH.

Persons in want of anything in the above line, will please give me a call before purchasing elsewhere, as I am determined to sell at the very lowest possible prices.

Store on Virginia street, opposite the Lutheran church.

Altoona, April 28, 1859-tf. JESSE SMITH.

EIGHT REASONS
WHY
EVERYBODY SHOULD GO TO
C. B. SINK'S STORE.

1. HE HAS A LARGE AND WELL selected assortment of Dry Goods, which are worth going to see.

2. He has an unequalled stock of GROCERIES, fresh and pure, which he will sell as reasonable as any merchant in the place.

3. He has Hardware, Queensware, Stoneware, &c., of the most fashionable styles.

4. He has a large case of Boots and Shoes for Gents, Ladies, Misses and Children, embracing all sizes, qualities and prices.

5. He has a fine stock of HATS for Summer wear—just the pink of the fashion—all very cheap.

6. He keeps always on hand an assortment of Ready-Made Clothing, to suit the season.

7. He has on hand a large stock of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, which he will make up to order on short notice in a fashionable style, and at prices which must give satisfaction.

8. He don't ask people to come and buy—only to come and examine his stock, feeling confident that if they but examine they will buy without asking.

LOCAL ITEMS.

LUTHERAN CHURCH.—The Allegheny Synod of the Lutheran Church will meet in Hollidaysburg on to-morrow the 13th. This Synod numbers near forty ministers whose labors are mainly in the counties of Blair, Cambria, Huntingdon, Bedford, Indiana, Somerset and Clearfield. The meeting will probably continue till the middle of next week.

On Saturday and Sabbath, a number of visiting ministers from a distance will officiate in the Lutheran Church of Altoona. The pastor has secured the services of the venerable Rev. B. Keller, agent of the Lutheran Board of publication, for the German portion of his congregation. Father Keller will preach in the German language on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and also on Sabbath a three o'clock.—There will be preaching in the English language, on Saturday evening, and Sabbath morning and evening. Rev. W. A. Passavant of Pittsburgh, and H. Baker of Lewistown, have promised to be present. The former is expected to preach on Sabbath morning, and the latter in the evening. Mr. Passavant occupies a very prominent position in the Lutheran Church, and has few equals in the pulpit. As he has never preached here, his expected presence next Sabbath will not fail to draw a crowded house.

SCARCITY OF ITEMS.—Items were as scarce this week as June-bugs in mid-winter. While we were mourning over the circumstances, our eyes fell upon a stray exchange, the Local of which was similarly troubled. His philosophy took a happy turn, and we cannot forbear copying a portion of it, making a few slight alterations. He says:—But, reader, be thankful, for "no news" is in truth "good news." Among all our thronging, busy, city life yesterday, no fearful casualty fell upon human hearts and lives. No one left his poor mortal remains a thing of mystery or of horror for a coroner's jury. Human passion and human frailty did not leap forth into startling shape or dead of woe and terror. Our railroad, trains, the swift shuttles of commerce and intercourse, moved to and fro, in and out from our city yesterday, and the hundreds of precious lives entrusted to the faith of flying wheels along the clanging rails, no disaster is reported. How much, then, is included in a dull day, and how justly it may be denmed a summation of all success, when the complicated machinery of our life that day shall leave no record to blanche the cheek or wring the heart. Reader, thank God for these dull days."

☞ MR. WILSON, the agent engaged by Miss Mary Rankin to sell her late work,—"The Daughter of Affliction," will visit this place in a few days for the purpose of circulating more generally, this truly good and interesting book among the people. We hope he will succeed in placing a copy of it in every family. Persons purchasing the Book will contribute to a purpose truly worthy of their patronage, as the proceeds are appropriated to the support of Miss Rankin and her aged mother.

The "Daughter of Affliction," compiled, and prefaced with an introduction by D. R. Good, M. D., of this place, was published but a few months since, and has already met with an extensive sale. It is highly recommended by a number of Christian Ministers who are personally acquainted with Miss Rankin, and has been extensively and favorably noticed by the religious and secular press wherever it has gone.

☞ "The Sabbath School," said the distinguished Statesman Daniel Webster, "is one of the great institutions of the day. It leads our youth in the path of truth and morality, and makes them good men and useful citizens. As a school of religious instruction, it is of inestimable value; as a civil institution it is priceless, and has done more to preserve our liberties than grave statesmen and armed soldiers. Let it then be fostered and preserved until the end of time." It is to be regretted that a great many parents in Altoona do not properly appreciate Sabbath Schools, and instead of sending their children there on the Lord's day, to be instructed mentally and morally, permit them to run at large and indulge in sinful amusements.—There are scores of children in our town who never passed the portals of a Sabbath School room, and who receive no religious instruction at home. Fearful is the responsibility that rests upon the parents of these neglected little ones.

FIRST PREMIUM BUSINESS PENMANSHIP.—We understand that our County Fair has not yet made an award in reference to the exhibitors of penmanship, but we have just seen a letter from the Secretary of the Fine Arts department of the late Ohio State Fair, at Zanesville, stating that the first premium for business penmanship was awarded to Duff's College. As the penmanship of nearly all the prominent commercial colleges in the west was there in competition, this award confirms all that has been previously claimed for Mr. Duncan's superiority as a penman. With such men as the author of Duff's Book-keeping, and the author of Duncan's Gems of Penmanship, at the head of the accountant's and penman's departments, the establishment must maintain its long established position in advance of all similar institutions in the country.—Phila. True Press.

HOLLIDAYSBURG ITEMS.—A man named Nokes fell from a wagon load of coke, which was being driven around the ring of the Fair ground, on exhibition, and before he could get out of the way the front wheel of the wagon pass over both his legs above the knees, bruising them severely but breaking no bones.——A disturbance occurred at the Fair ground between Steel Pecht, a member of the Guards from this place, and a man named "Bully" Shaffer, of Hollidaysburg, which resulted in Pecht getting himself into jail for a few hours.——A convention of the members of the Presbyterian Colony will be held in Hollidaysburg, on Wednesday the 25th of October,——A man named Keys was almost instantly killed, near Freedom, on Friday last, by the upsetting of a load of pig metal, a part of which fell on him. A person who was in company with him was also seriously injured. Whiskey is said to have been the cause.——A little son of Maj. J. D. Leet, aged about six years fell from a porch to the pavement, on Thursday afternoon last, and broke his arm.

☞ The information imparted by our neighbor "over-the-hill" will certainly be news to the managers of the Penn'a R. R. Co. We dount whether they were previously aware of the Co. having an organ, as it certainly does not need one. The insinuation that the Tribune is sustained and kept alive by the patronage of the Company, is incorrect. At the time this paper was started, and when the patronage spoken of was most needed, it did not receive it.—As we should be, we are thankful for the patronage bestowed, but our votes and influence are not bought thereby, and therefore seriously object to the Standard-man "measuring our corn in his half-bushel." No doubt he would take the patronage alluded to, were it extended him, on the same terms that we receive it, and be willing to take, as we are, all the insinuations of envious cotemporaries, very philosophically.

☞ It is gratifying to see with what success really valuable inventions meet. It is scarcely more than a few weeks, since A. Roush's Rat and Mice Destroyer was first introduced and its merits are already publicly acknowledged, and where properly used it has and always will give entire satisfaction. The time will not be very distant, when it will be considered one of the "institutions of the day" and take the place of all other preparations of the kind heretofore used.

PHONOGRAPHY.—John C. Richards, who comes well recommended as a teacher of phonography, will give an explanation of the system in West Ward School house, on Tuesday evening next, Oct 18th at 7½ o'clock. Mr. R. will teach a class in this place if sufficient encouragement be given. We think he should be able to get up a class without difficulty. His is a lyghtning system of writing and this is one of the go-a-head-locomotive towns. The public are respectfully invited to attend the lecture.

THE GIRLS.—

God bless the girls
Whose golden curls
Blend with our evening dreams;
They haunt our lives
Like spirit wives,
Or—as naiads haunt the streams.

They sooth our pains,
They fill our brains
With dreams of sunnier hours.
God bless the girls,
God bless the curls,
God bless our human flowers.

THE RETURNS.—By returns we don't mean election returns, but the returns of a number of our merchants with their fall and winter goods, and in this article we intend to speak particularly of the very large, fine, seasonable stock just opened out by our young friend, Rob. Kerr, in the old stand on Main street. Bob's stock is entirely new, and all who have visited the establishment under his former administration know that he selects good goods. Call on him.

STOLEN.—A brown tarrier dog with stiff beard, right foot cut across the toes, which makes him limp. A suitable reward will be given for his return to the owner, and no questions asked by the subscriber.

WILLIAM W. SNYDER,
At the Post Office, Altoona.

KNOCK DOWN ARGUMENTS.—We learn that a free fight came off in the vicinity of the White Hall Hotel on Tuesday evening, in which quite a number had their eyes shrowded in mourning and the "claret" beautifully tapped. We know not the origin, but presume tangle-foot whiskey had much to do with it.

☞ The Western Penna. Fair, held at Pittsburgh, September, 1859, awarded the first Premiums for the best Business and ornamental Writing to the Iron City Commercial College. This is the third triumph at the Fairs of this City over other Colleges.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

NOTICE.—The fifth instalment on the Capita stock of the Altoona Gas and Water Company will be due and made payable at the Banking House of Wm. M. Lloyd & Co., on Monday, October 17th, 1859.,

B. F. ROSE, Secretary.

Altoona, Oct. 6th, 1859–2t.

☞ Election day passed off unusually quietly in this place. No disturbance occurred at any of the polls, and but few persons were noticed to be under the influence of "kill-'em-quick" whiskey.

HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers at private sale the house and lot now occupied by him on Chestnut St., North Ward Altoona. The House is a good two Story Plank Building, weatherboarded, containing a Hall, Parlor, Dining-Room and Kitchen on the first floor, four good size sleeping rooms on the second floor, and a good Attic. Also a good Porch and Balcony to the back part of the House. A good cellar, and excellent water at the door. The lot is in good order, with a number of fruit trees, stable, &c, on it. For further information, call on the subscriber, residing thereon.

There is a small frame dwelling House on the same lot.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

The great standard medicines of the present age, have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases; and the people have pronounced them worthy.

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Debility of the Nervous System, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or weakness of the stomach and digestive organs, are speedily and permanently cured by the GERMAN BITTERS.

The Balsamic Cordial has acquired a reputation surpassing that of any similar preparation extant. It will cure, WITHOUT FAIL, the most severe and long-standing

Cough, Cold, or Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Influenza, Croup, Pneumonia, Incipient Consumption, and has performed the most astonishing cures ever known of Confirmed Consumption.

A few doses will also at once check and cure the most severe Diarrhœa proceeding from COLD IN THE BOWELS.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON & Co., No. 418 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and are sold by druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere, at 75 cents per bottle. The signature of C. M. JACKSON will be on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Piles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its apposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer,

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

Nervous Diseases Controlled and Conquered.

Of all the various ills that detract from the enjoyment of human life, most of them may be traced to a disordered condition of the nervous system. The horrors of Epilepsy, or Falling Sickness, arise in most cases from this cause.—Our readers may remember, on several occasions before, we have alluded to the wonderful cures, or modifications of Fits, made by the Vegetable Extract Epileptic Pills, invented and prepared by Dr. Seth S. Hance, of 136 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md. We feel fully satisfied that these Pills have cured some of the most stubborn cases of Epilepsy, as well as the milder forms of Fits, such as severe Cramps, Spasms, &c. We now record the fact, that persons will find these Pills equally efficacious in curing every form of nervous debility:—no matter whether manifested in the acute and excruciating form of Neuralgia, Tic-Douloreux, or Nervous Headache, the misery of Dyspepsia or Indigestion, the sufferings of Rheumatism or Gout, the melancholy hallucination of depressed spirits or hysteria, their effects will be equally happy and certain. Persons in the country can write to the inventor, and have the medicine forwarded to them by mail. The prices are, one box, $3; two boxes $5; twelve boxes $24; and sent to any part of the country, free of postage. Direct your communications to SETH S. HANCE, 108 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md.

☞ During the summer that has just passed away, thousand of sufferers from dysentery and diarrhœa have been relieved by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, a medicine which is evidently destined to maintain a permanent place in the public estimation. Bilious diarrhœa is one of those diseases which baffles the skill of the physician. The medicine they administer to act upon the bowels never seems to reach the source of the evil. The difficulty is to get a remedy that will reach all the digestive organs, and give them simultaneously a rush of vigor, to rid themselves of this disease. This problem is solved by the BITTERS, which never fails to conquer the most stubborn cases. It is only fair to say, that during the season just closed, this medicine has achieved more cures than any other ever presented to the public, and during the fall, which that terrible scourge, the fever and ague, is so prevalent, the BITTERS will gain fresh fame.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

WORMS.

☞ As this is the season of the year when worms are most formidable among children, the proprietors of M'Lane's Vermifuge, Fleming Bros. of Pittsburgh, beg leave to call the attention of parents to its virtues for the expelling of these annoying, and often fatal enemies of children. It was invented by a physician of great experience in Virginia, who, after having used it for several years in his own practice, and found its success so universal, was induced at last to offer it to the public as a cheap but certain and excellent medicine. It has since become justly popular throughout the United States, as the most efficient Vermifuge ever known, and the demand has been steadily on the increase since its first introduction to the public.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge, manufactured by Fleming Bros. of Pittsburgh, Pa All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge, also his celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of

WHAT IT WOULD TAKE TO FEED THE SUN.—A philosopher has calculated that the amount of light which flows from the solar orb could be scarcely produced by the daily combustion of two hundred globes of tallow, each equal to the earth in magnitude. A sphere of combustible matter, much larger than the sun itself, would be consumed every ten years in mantaining its wonderful brilliancy. It would be a splendid sight to see an immense transparency illuminated by means of one of these tallow globes, and having written upon it, "Buy all your garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut Street, above Sixth, Philadelphia."

MARRIED.

At the Presbyterian Parsonage, in this place, on the morning of the 6th inst., by the Rev. A. B. Clark, Mr. JOHN M. CAMPBELL to Miss CORNELIA M. CLARK, sister of the officiating clergyman.

The groom will please accept our thanks for the manner in which he remembered the printers. May many more who banuch their barks upon the sea of matrimony go and do likewise. We wish him and his estimable lady a pleasant and prosperous voyage over lifes troubled sea and a safe anchorage in the heaven of rest.

DIED.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW WORK BY EMERSON BENNETT,

Author of "Clara Moreland," "Prairie Flower," "The Refugees," "Blanche Bertrand," "The Artist's Bride," &c., &c., entitled

WILD SCENES ON THE FRONTIERS; OR HEROES OF THE WEST.

"Westward, the course of Empire takes its way."

This Work, is the only one in Book form, which for several years has emanated from the pen of the gifted author, who treads now alone the path once trodden by our own Cooper. It will contain graphic pictures of the conflicts of the hardy Pioneer, whose strifes and struggles with his Indian foe, rival the tales of fiction and the tragic counterfeits of the mimic stage. Also, thrilling narratives of the daring deeds, the heart-trials, the heroic devotion and self-denial of noble women, the mothers of the West! Beneath the over-arching forests, hand to hand, and foot to foot, the intrepid adventurer has encountered in deadly combat the ruffian desperadoes who made their haunts in the backwoods, and his gallant achievements have thrown a halo of romance over the waving prairies, the grand old mountains, and the majestic rivers of the land of the setting sun!

Nor are these pages wanting in those gentler scenes which make up home-life, and which are pictured with all the skill and fidelity for which the author is pre-eminently distinguished. His delineation of Frontier character, and of the scenery of the Borders, has always the advantage of an accuracy which is the result of an intimate, personal acquaintance.

The Work will be printed on fine white paper, in clear, open type, and appropriately and beautifully illustrated by the most skillful artists. 12mo., Cloth. Price, 1.25.

AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES. As the season is rapidly passing away, and our stock of Delaines, Challies, Lawns, Brilliants, &c., is very heavy, we want to close them out to make room for our Fall and Winter Stock.

Persons wishing to purchase such goods would do well to call and examine our stock before making their purchases. We will also sell all articles in our Store at greatly reduced prices, such as Hats, Caps, Bonnets, Boots and Shoes, &c., &c. [Aug. 4, 1859.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,

The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the suds.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased.

BOERHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND ACUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success amaong them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new hearth and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful remedy has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

IRON FINGER NAILS FOR HUSKING CORN.—Gould's Patent Husking Thimble is the only implement known that will entirely protect the fingers from the evils of excoriation, &c., common to husking corn by hand.

We are now in possession of over 200,000 letters of approval, over the signatures of reliable farmers and planters in different localities in the U. S., equally as flattering as the following.

READ! READ! READ!
THE HUSKING THIMBLE CAN'T Be BEAT.

MESSRS GOULD & Co—Sirs:—I send enclosed $1 for six pairs of your celebrated Husking Thimbles. I bought a pair of you last fall and I have used them for husking ever since. If there are any who don't think worth while to buy a pair, let them tear their finger nails off; for one, I won't. They will outwear anything of the kind I ever saw, and for husking they can't be beat.

Yours truly, WM. MORROW.

BETTER THAN ANY MACHINE.

MESSRS. J. H. GOULD & Co.—Gents; find enclosed $1.00 for six pairs of your patent Husking Thimbles of the sizes represented by the measures enclosed. I used a pair last year and I prefer them to all the great, small, and little giant Corn Huskers. Yours Respectfully, A. H. BELL.

Hillsboro Montgomery Co., Ill. Nov. 27th, 1858.

THE HUSKING THIMBLES ARE ALL WE REPRESENT THEM TO BE.

J. H. GOULD & Co.—Alliance Ohio—Gentlemen:—I received in good order the six pairs of Husking Thimbles and can say that they are all that is represented of them. I have distributed them among my neighbors, and could have sold a great many if I had had them in season. I will myself, or get some one to do so, apply for an agency for their sale in Central Iowa next season.

Yours &c., SAMUEL M. DYER.

East Desmoines Polk Co., Iowa, Dec. 20th, 1858.

PRICES.

The Husking Thimbles are sent by mail (post paid) to any P. O. address, for one dollar per dozen, (six pairs.) Assorted sizes with circulars, directions for using &c., by Express for five dollars per hundred. (50 pairs.) FARM LANDS FOR SALE 25 MILES from

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action; and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

☞ Sold by G W Kessler and A Roush, Altoona; G A Jacobs, J K Patton and W G Murray, Hollidaysburg; and S Berlin, Tyrone. [Aug. 25, 1859–1y

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

FOR SALE, Gratis, at the Library of this Medicine, a Pamphlet, entitled Coggswell's Inflammatory Rheumatism.

"For the last twelve years I have been more or less troubled with Inflammatory Rheumatism, commencing early in the Spring, and lasting until cold weather set in, when I would be relieved for a while, only to be attacked again in the Spring. All my joints would swell and be very sore, attended with the most acute pain. My feet, shoulders, arms, and hands troubled me most, so much so that I could scarcely walk, and almost always required assistance in dressing. During this time I would try everything I could hear of, in the hope of finding a cure. I also tried several physicians, but nothing seemed to help me the least in the world. About two and a half years ago I was attacked as usual, and as usual tried everything to get rid of it, but to no purpose. I kept growing worse, and finally had to give up and stay in the house, where I was confined about four weeks. This time my feet swelled, and were so sore that I could not stand on them or get on my boots, and my hands swelled to twice their usual size. In fact, I was, to all appearances and belief, totally used up. About this time my parents, who reside in Maine, sent for me to come home. I went and after my arrival I commenced trying another remedy, hoping to be cured, but resulting the same as all others. For weeks I had not been able to dress myself or to raise my hand to my head, and suffering the most excruciating pain all the time.—One day my father came in with a paper in which was advertised Dr. Coggswell's MEDICAL SALT, for Inflammatory Diseases only; and wanted me to read and see what I thought of it. I read and laughed at it, pronounced it a humbug, and told him that I had been humbugged enough. He kept urging me, and at last said I could but try it, and if I would write to Dr. C., giving him a description of my disease, he would pay the expense. Of course I could not refuse such an offer and sent for one box. It came in due season, but my faith was not increased, and I laughed at the idea of so small a dose doing me any good, and told my wife that I believed Dr. C. and his Salt both humbugs.—However, I commenced using it and the result was perfectly astonishing. I could hardly realize it myself. I slept soundly all night, which I had not done for a long time, and when I awoke in the morning, strange as it may seem, I was entirely free from pain. I had then taken but one dose, and bathed freely before going to bed. That morning I felt so well that I hardly knew how to contain myself, and went down stairs and told the folks how well I felt, and from that day to this I have not suffered one moment's pain or had an attack of my once dreaded enemy, Rheumatism. I am perfectly well and hearty, and wherever I have a chance I recommend it. A friend of mine, resider in Brooklyn, is now trying it for a bad case of neuralgic rheumatism, and so far it is working admirably.—This is a long story, but I have told all the facts, which I can bring witnesses to substantiate if necessary; and will again say that in the MEDICAL SALT, a sure cure may be found for all inflammatory diseases, and would urge all who are afflicted to give it a trial. GEO. H. DUNCAN,
No. 117 Wall Street, New York.

When it is remembered that the MEDICAL SALT is as efficacious in all other Inflammatory diseases as in Rheumatism, (see descriptive circulars) it will at once be seen that it is a most valuable remedy. Surely those thus afflicted will find in their own condition and in the above statements, enough to induce them to give the MEDICAL SALT a trial.

Price $1,00; Chronic packages, $2,50.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.—THE SUB-

SCRIBER would respectfully inform the public that he has recently refitted the above Hotel, and is now prepared to accommodate his friends and patrons in a comfortable manner, and he will spare no pains in making it an agreeable home for all sojourners.

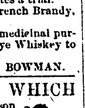
His Table will always be luxuriously supplied from the markets of the country and cities, and his Bar filled with liquors of choice brands. His charges are as reasonable as those of any other Hotel in the place, and he feels satisfied they can not be complained of by those who favor him with their custom. Expecting to receive a share of public patronage, and fully intending to deserve it, he throws open his house to the public and invites a trial.

I have just received a stock of No. 1 French Brandy, for medicinal purposes.

Also a large stock of excellent Wines, for medicinal purposes, together with a lot of the best old Rye Whiskey to be found in the country.

Altoona, May 27, 1859.–1y] JOHN BOWMAN.

THE GREAT QUESTION WHICH



now agitates the mind of every person is, where can I get the best article for my money? In regard to other matters, the subscriber would not attempt to direct, but if you want anything in the line of he invites an examination of his stock and work.

BOOTS OR SHOES

He keeps constantly on hand an assortment of Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, Slippers, &c., which he offers at fair prices.

He will give special attention to custom work, all of which will be warranted to give satisfaction. None but the best workmen are employed.

Remember my shop is on Virginia street, immediately opposite Kessler's Drug Store.

TO all wanting Farms. See advertisement of Hammonton Lands.

NEW AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT.—To all wanting Farms, a rare opportunity in a delightful and healthy climate 25 miles Southeast of Philadelphia, on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad New Jersey.

An old estate consisting of several thousands of acres of productive soil has been divided into Farms of various sizes to suit the purchaser. A population of some Fifteen Hundred, from various parts of the Middle States and New England have settled there the past year, improved their places, and raised excellent crops. The price of the land is at the low sum of from $15 to $20 per acre, the soil is of the best quality for the production of Wheat, Clover, Corn, Peaches, Grapes and Vegetables. IT IS CONSIDERED THE BEST FRUIT SOIL IN THE UNION. The place is perfectly secure from frosts—the destructive enemy of the farmer. Crops of grain, grass and fruit are now growing and can be seen. By examining the place itself, a correct judgment can be formed of the productiveness of the land. The terms are made easy to secure the rapid improvement of the land, which is only sold for actual improvement. The result has been, that within the past year, some three hundred houses have been erected, two mills, one steam, four stores, some forty vineyards and Peach orchards planted, and a large number of other improvements, making it a desirable and active place of business.

THE MARKET,

as the reader may perceive from its location, is the

BEST IN THE UNION.

Produce bringing double the price than in locations away from the city, and more than double the price than the West. It is known that the earliest and best fruits and vegetables in this latitude come from New Jersey, and are annually exported to the extent of millions.

In locating here, the settler has many advantages. He is within a few hours ride of the great cities of New England and Middle States, he is near his old friends and associations, he is in a settled country where every improvement of comfort and civilization is at hand. He can buy every article he wants at the cheapest price, and sell his produce for the highest, (in the West this is reversed,) he has schools for his children, divine service, and will enjoy an open winter, and delightful climate, where fevers are utterly unknown. The result of the change upon those from the north, has generally been to restore them to an excellent state of health.

In the way of building and improving, lumber can be obtained at the mills at the rate of $10 to $15 per thousand. Bricks from the brick yard opened in the place, every article can be procured in the place, good carpenters are at hand, and there is no place in the Union where buildings and improvements can be made cheaper.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages there presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it has never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct, no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will see land under cultivation: such is the extent of the settlement that they will no doubt, meet persons from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvements and can judge the character of the population. If they come with a view to settle, they should come prepared to stay a day or two and be ready to purchase, as locations cannot be held on refusal.

There are two daily trains to Philadelphia, and to all settlers who improve, the Railroad Company gives a Free Ticket for six months, and a half-price Ticket for three years.

THE TOWN OF HAMMONTON.

In connection with the agricultural settlement, a new and thriving town has naturally arisen, which presents inducements for any kind of business, particularly stores and manufactories. The 85th instant could be carried on in this place with good advantage, also cotton business, and manufactories of agricultural implements or Founderies for casting small articles. The improvement has been so rapid as to insure a constant and permanent increase of business. Town lots of a good size, we do not sell small ones, are for sale, and effect the improvement of the place, can be had at from $100 and upwards.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly literary and agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, can be obtained at 25 cents per annum.

Title indisputable—conveyance deeds given, clear of all incumbrance when money is paid. Route to the land, leave Vine street wharf, Philadelphia for Hammonton by Railroad, at 7½ A. M., or 4½ P. M. Fare 90 cents. When there inquire for Mr. Byrnes. Boarding conveniences on hand. Parties had better go with Mr. Byrnes, a judge pal. until they have decided as to purchasing, as he will show them over the land in his carriage, free of expense. Letters and applications can be addressed to Landis & Byrnes, Hammonton P. O., Atlantic Co., New Jersey, or S. B. Conglitin, 202 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia.—Maps and information cheerfully furnished.

"MAGNUM EST VECTIGAL PARSIMONIA."—Did every one who reads the heading of this article but understand its meaning, they would immediately repair to the shop of

JOHN O'DONNELL,
FASHIONABLE TAILOR,

Main St., Altoona, a few doors below the Red Lion Hotel, and select a suit of clothes from the large stock of which he has just received from the East, feeling sure that in doing so they would be carrying out the motto.

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS,

It is not necessary here to mention the different styles and quantities of the goods on hand, suffice it to say that he has everything in the line of gentlemen's wear, and he knows how to make it up in a fashionable and durable style, on terms as reasonable as those of any other merchant Tailor in the place.

Give him a call and you will soon discover that you can carry out the motto adopted by dealing with him.

LOGAN HOTEL.—THE UNDER-

SIGNED respectfully informs the citizens of Blair county and others, that he has opened up the LOGAN HOUSE, formerly kept by Sheriff Rees, at the west end of Hollidaysburg, for the reception of strangers and travellers.

Everything connected with the house has been refitted in the new with the choicest furniture, &c., &c.

The house is large and commodious, and well calculated for convenience and comfort.

His TABLE will be furnished with the very best the market can afford, and no pains or trouble will be spared to render those who may choose to favor him with their patronage comfortable and happy during their stay with him.

His STABLING is ample, and an obliging and careful hostler will always be in attendance.

☞ The Williamsburg stage, which makes daily trips between this place and Williamsburg, stops at the Logan Hotel.

THE SECRET INFIRMITIES OF

YOUTH AND MATURITY just published in this the 25th Thousand.

A few words on the Rational Treatment, without Medicine of Spermatorrhœa or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Premature Decay of the System, Impotency and Impediments to marriage generally, by R. De Laney, M. D.

The important fact that many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth may be easily removed without medicine, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No. 152 East 21st Street, New York City.
